

INSULIN-LIKE GROWTH FACTOR AGONIST MOLECULES

Abstract of the Disclosure

Compounds are provided that inhibit the interaction of an IGF with any one of its binding proteins and not to a human IGF receptor. These IGF agonist compounds, which include peptides, are useful to increase serum and tissue levels of active IGFs in a mammal.